Finally, cross everything off monsoon bucket list, and in doing so, snap as many pics as possible to remember it all. They have planned an epic weekend getaway with the besties before everyone heads off to lane of memories. They could even make it a point to celebrate the end of long break with smiling, singing moments followed by tasty lunch.

This reminds “While you're watching the sunset over the water, make sure to grab your friends for an epic squad pic with the beautiful views in the background”.

A little more mention that Mr. Debasish Halder almost travelled 100 km to attend the auspicious day.....so love for college & college days.....

There were few virtual guests from many corners of the world were present. There were a discussion, introduction and oath of action.

With the help of great explanation from Biswajitda, senior most NCPian, followed by various discussion a great outcome chalked out that can be thrilling for NCPMANIAC & NCP students:

- a) More helping hands for accelerating noble causes driven by NCPMANIAC i.e. Scholarship, social help*
- b) More & more way to help present student for campus drive*
- c) More engagement in Reunion in upcoming years*

SEE you SOON.....Let us shell-abrate all the good times and tan line
